Gospel Reflections Easter Sunday

April 17th 2022

That's the end of Him!

These could have been the words of the Roman soldiers as they walked away from Jesus on the cross on Good Friday.

Jesus was certainly dead and would soon be buried in a sealed tomb. All His followers had fled in fear and denied even knowing Him. They did not understand two important things about Our Lord that would surprise them. Jesus was completely innocent ...and He would rise again on Easter Sunday.

I have seen similar surprising events in the world today, especially in Ukraine. Many experts predicted that Ukraine would fall quickly. Russia would invade Ukrainian cities and say, "That's the end of them!" They also expected the world to abandon the Ukrainian people too. These experts did not understand two things about this small country. Ukrainians were innocent ...and they would rise again!

Their compassion for each other and their courage to face the enemy has inspired the world and has even led to major victories so far.

Jesus was innocent when He arrived at the cross, yet His compassion and courage also remained strong. Nothing would stop Our Lord from being with the people He loves, not even the cross.

He felt compassion for people whose sinful behavior had left them profoundly unhappy, and He showed courage by facing even death on a cross. Yet, His love for you cannot die, and so He physically rose from the dead on that first Easter Sunday. The arrogance of Roman and Russian soldiers cannot win against the power of compassion and courage. They both should have taken His resurrection seriously.

Easter Sunday empowered His disciples with that same compassion and courage. They burst out of Jerusalem to enter the whole world, as dangerous as it was, to share this Good News. You and I have that same faith today because of that long line of faithful people that stretches back in time to those brave disciples.

I am glad the compassion and courage of Our Lord reveals the way to lasting happiness, and for the example of so many saints in our history who lived that life well. I am also inspired by the courage of the Ukrainian people and the compassion of the world to help them.

Ask God today for the grace to live your compassion and courage the same way.

Happy Easter!

God bless!
