Gospel Reflections 13th Sunday June 30th 2024

New beginnings...

There are several beginnings in today's Gospel. Good news for all of us!

A woman who had been sick for 12 years comes to Jesus for help. That is an amazing testimony of her faith.

She had already seen many doctors ...who only made matters worse! Moreover, sickness then was considered a sign of God's disfavor, leading to her alienation from others and perhaps even her own family.

Life had not turned out well for her. You could understand if she became cynical and angry. Yet she is not. She courageously approaches Jesus for help and is rewarded with a miraculous cure.

Similarly, a synagogue official asks Jesus for help for his young daughter, yet when Jesus arrives the girl is already dead. You could understand if the official became cynical and angry that Jesus was too late. However, it is never too late for Our Lord, and He raises the girl from the dead!

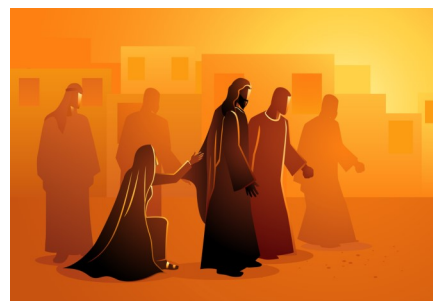

We will celebrate the beginning of our nation this week, on July 4th. At our founding in 1776, you could understand that people then would have become cynical and angry and given up any hope that there could ever be justice from English tyranny, or even reconciliation between slave holding and free states.

Yet, the founders of our nation responded with our Declaration of Independence and our Constitution that each told a hopeful story of freedom and justice for all. That started a new beginning and trajectory of freedom that eventually ended slavery and created the most prosperous and powerful nation in world history!

Those noble ideals did not begin easily at first, and our history has had its ups and downs living up to those original ideals, including a terrible Civil War and many legal civil rights battles since. However, our beginning in 1776 continued a whole series of new beginnings of more and more social justice.

This week, there is a new beginning for Fr. Michael Tang, who will soon leave St. Bruno and live conveniently closer to Loyola Marymount University where he has been a Professor of Art for over 30 years. The commute from here has been a challenge! We wish him all the best.

What has remained constant from this Gospel to today is that new beginnings are possible, and that it is never too late to receive blessings and a beautiful new life from Our Lord.

God bless!

Safeguard the Children

DID YOU KNOW?

Trust your instincts when it comes to human trafficking

Human trafficking is happening in more places than you would think, and often it passes unnoticed because traffickers are highly skilled. If you see a situation that does not feel right, or you observe something inappropriate or concerning, you could be saving someone's life by reporting it. Often, trafficking can be noted by small indicators: someone who is deferring to another person often, or who is often controlled in who they can talk to or what they can say. Victims will also often appear to be timid or fearful, especially of a particular person, and to be isolated from other friends, family, and community members. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Know the Facts: Abductions and Human Trafficking" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

For these we pray:

Jennifer Ackley, Hector Alatorre, Juan Angulo, Mrs. Grace Bertucci, Connie Brewer, Donna Broady, Dennis Calderone, Rita Casacchia, Christopher Castillo, Becky Cleary, Ciera Dean, Clarissa Estrada, Marie G., Silvia Gonzalez, Joe Heredia, Bob Lindgren, Gary Maleski, Anna Mestaz, Mario Mestaz, Mark Mestaz, Veronica Mestaz, Thomas O'Donnel, Peggy Oxford Rivera & family, Nicole Pearce, Raquel Peralga & family, Christina Peterson, Molly Piñeda, John Portela, Dean Ramsay, Rudy Ruiz, Dennis Sanchez, Brett Sanders, John Santa Maria, De Anne Soto, Ryan Wallace Family, Chuck Zywoციenski, and un-born babies.
