Gospel Reflections 10th Sunday June 9th 2024

Who is my family?

This Gospel provides much wisdom to answer that question.

It begins with Jesus expelling the devil from a possessed person. The Pharisees accuse Him of seeking the Devils help. Jesus simply asks why would the Devil help Him expel the Devil? That would confirm that Hell is divided against itself, and a sign that the Devil's reign is coming to an end ...through the love of Our Lord!

Jesus affirms here that a family cannot also be divided against itself, and that families must be on the same page for their own goals as well. Parents must be on the same page for any rules of behavior in their home and discipline in their family.

Division is what the devil wants. Our word Devil actually comes from the Greek word Diaballein (similar to Spanish Diabolo) which means to separate. That is goal of the Devil, to separate, while Our Lord wants to unify around healthy rules for family happiness and growth.

Next, the Pharisees refuse to believe that Jesus conquers the Devil through love and forgiveness. That is the unforgiveable sin mentioned in the Gospel. God cannot forgive a sin if the person ...refuses to believe in His forgiveness!

Forgiveness is simply a promise of no revenge for bad behavior while not forgetting the damage done. Healthy families practice honest sorrow for bad behavior which then requires repentance or a true change to good behavior. Healing happens with that change to true loving behavior. This allows past hurtful events to remain in the past and affirms the hope of a better future.

Finally, as Our Lord is speaking to a large crowd inside a house, He hears that His family is waiting for Him outside. He looks at his audience and says in effect, My family are all those who do the will of my Father in Heaven. Of course, no one lived that will of God more than Mary, which might have inspired Our Lord to say just that.

Jesus affirms that mothers, fathers, brothers, and sisters, are not just titles, they are behaviors of those who do the will of God, which is living the life of Our Lord! Those who actually behave as true mothers, fathers, brothers, and sisters, can deserve that title.

Healthy families are unified, forgiving, repenting, and focused on loving behavior. This is a rich Gospel with much wisdom packed into just a few verses!

God bless!

Safeguard the Children
DID YOU KNOW?

What color swimsuit is best for water safety?

Drowning is one of the leading causes of death for children. If you plan to take your children to the pool or beach this summer, you want to pick out a safe swimsuit. Studies have shown that light colored, or white swimwear is very hard to see underwater, making the wearer seem to disappear. The light colors are even more undetectable with water agitation. Stick to bright, bold colors and neon patterns to be able to spot your children when they are playing and swimming. For more information, read the TODAY article "Why swim instructors are warning parents against certain swimsuit colors" at <https://www.today.com/parents/color-test-kids-swimsuits-show-best-colors-are-neon-t219805>.
