Gospel Reflections 16th Sunday July 21st 2024

Do you have the cure for violence?

If so, I hope you will share it with everyone. You'll soon have a lot of friends! Something similar happens in today's Gospel. Jesus is meeting with His disciples after they return from preaching His message of love and salvation to the neighboring villages. They were very successful since a large crowd follows them all the way back to Our Lord!

Jesus notices this and yet also appreciated His disciples needed rest. He invites them to "Come away to a quiet place to rest" but the enormous crowd presses in on them. Why is that?

People recognized a good thing when they heard it ...and they wanted more! Jesus notices they seem like sheep without a shepherd meaning their leaders had not been able to provide the answers they needed.

The people found their answers when they heard Our Lord's disciples preach and live the virtues of the Kingdom of God. That was the "cure" they needed!

What the people in this Gospel want is a cure from the hopelessness they feel under violent Roman occupation, the corruption of their own leaders, and the bad behavior of people. They simply want a cure from sin.

Jesus lived a message of love that conquers sin. Love is seeking the authentic good of another, while sin is seeking only your own satisfaction and only as you selfishly want it.

The disciples heard this message and took it to the nearby villages and found amazing success. We can learn from them. We have our own versions of the problems they faced with rising crime rates, economic concerns, and political dissension.

President Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul both survived assassination attempts in 1981. Both felt they were "saved for a larger purpose" which they knew was to end communism. Facing a near death event can focus the mind on larger causes. As I write this on Monday of this week, I pray the same will happen to former President Trump and even all politicians.

This is not the time to be silent. This is the time to be a visible example of love in your own life every day. This is the cure for yourself that lasts forever.

People may follow you as they did the disciples in this Gospel!

God bless!

WAYS TO GIVE

I hope you will join me in making this important resource for our St. Bruno families happen!

Eagle's Wings is a support group for those experiencing a life-changing illness. Some of our 24 topics include Coping with Symptoms, Where is God, and Finding Inspiration. Our conversations take place in a friendly and confidential atmosphere.

Sickness and suffering doesn't have to be meaningless, how we respond to suffering can make all the difference. Mary walked with Jesus during his suffering. Eagle's Wings is here to walk with you. We meet every Thursday from 10:00 - 11:30 AM in the Parish Center.

Safeguard the Children DID YOU KNOW?

Summer safety tips: Designate 'water watchers' to care for people around the water

Drowning behavior is typically fast and silent. Unless rescued, a drowning person will last only 20 to 60 seconds before submerging. To prevent drowning, it is best to swim in a lifeguarded area. Always designate a "water watcher" whose sole responsibility is to keep a close eye and constant attention on everyone in and around the water until the next water watcher takes over. In the event of an emergency, reach or throw an object to the person in trouble. Don't go in or you could become a victim yourself. For more information, visit redcross.org.

For these we pray:

Jennifer Ackley, Hector Alatorre, Mrs. Grace Bertucci, Connie Brewer, Dennis Calderone, Rita Casacchia, Christopher Castillo, Becky Cleary, Ciera Dean, Anna Egbert, Clarissa Estrada, Silvia Gonzalez, Araceli Harris, Joe Heredia, Bob Lindgren, Gary Maleski, Anna Mestaz, Mario Mestaz, Mark Mestaz, Veronica Mestaz, Jessica Norton, Peggy Oxford Rivera & family, Christina Peterson, Molly Piñeda, John Portela, Rudy Ruiz, Dennis Sanchez, Brett Sanders, John Santa Maria, De Anne Soto, Ryan Wallace Family, and un-born babies.
