Gospel Reflections 14th Sunday July 7th 2024

Jesus and the USA

Today's Gospel is the story of Our Lord's return to His hometown of Nazareth, a place where everyone knew Him well.

Because they knew He was wise, He was invited to speak in the local synagogue on the famous passage from Isaiah that proclaims the saving actions of God for those in need (more fully told in Luke 4: 14-30).

It is a wonderful list of saving actions for anyone in trouble. The passage in Luke from this same event in Mark affirms God will bring liberty to captives, good news to the poor, recovery of sight to the blind, and set the oppressed free. Who would not want those wonderful goals?

The Jewish people, long oppressed by foreign rulers would have loved this saving message of God granting special favors. However ...they believed they were only for them!

Amazingly, after Jesus finishes, the people seek his death! Why is that?

At the end of His speech Jesus recounts two miracles from the Old Testament where God performed miracles ...for non-Jewish pagan people. That surprises them. To their amazement, Jesus affirms that God's salvation is for all people ...and not just the Jews! The Jewish people of Nazareth rose in anger because they felt God should only help them. They resented that people from other groups could receive God's grace.

This is a perfect Gospel to hear the week that we celebrated our nation's birth in 1776, where the blessings of liberty would one day be shared by all people no matter what group they were born into. Our nation was founded on the dignity of every citizen no matter where they were born or who they are. Of course, that freedom did not happen instantly.

The 1776 event began a long and sometimes painful process that would eventually bring freedom to everyone, including former slaves.

God's gift of salvation comes to each of us, one person at a time, and never because we belong to any group, race, or ethnicity. No one can claim salvation except by your personal acceptance in faith and your personal choice of loving behavior.

This is a time in our nation when some people are claiming rights by group membership. (see my article on Critical Race Theory at stbrunochurch.org) Our nation and our Catholic faith are both founded on your personal responsibility before God and one another.

That is the true source of your salvation ...and our nation's prosperity.

God bless!

Safeguard the Children

DID YOU KNOW?

Who is a mandated reporter?

In California, a mandated reporter is a professional who is required to report instances or suspected instances of child abuse. Mandated reporters include doctors, medical examiners, health care facility workers, day-care workers, school employees, and members of the clergy. Volunteers of public or private organizations whose duties require direct contact with, and supervision of children are not mandated reporters but are encouraged to obtain training in the identification and reporting of child abuse and neglect. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles encourages all in our church to speak up to the appropriate authorities if any form of child abuse is suspected. Find out more about mandated reporters at childwelfare.gov.
